

Hispanic Genealogical Society of Houston

<http://www.hispanicgs.org/>

Visit us on Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/Hispanic-Genealogical-Society-of-Houston-1381128072148748/>

will host Alfredo E. Cardenas Author

former Mayor Duval County seat of San Diego

Presenting

"Balo's War, A Book About the Plan of San Diego: Its Impact on South Texas and Tejano History."

Saturday, May 6th

Clayton Library Guest House

5300 Caroline St., 77004.

10:30 a.m. – Meet & Greet

11 a.m. - Meeting

Born, raised, and educated in San Diego, Texas. Mr. Cardenas received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from St. Mary's University in San Antonio, which he put into practice in several positions in government and with social service agencies, as well as with political campaigns. In addition, he served as director of community and economic development for Duval County before founding and publishing the Duval County Picture, a weekly newspaper from 1987-1999. He has written history articles for the Journal of South Texas and The Handbook of Texas Online, as well columns covering history and current affairs for various Texas newspapers. Founder of MCM Books, an independent publishing house based in Corpus Christi assisting authors with publications dealing with any aspect of South Texas. MCM has published La Voz de Amor, Spanish poetry by Servando Cardenas and soon to release Life in South Texas Colonia on cultural art by Manuel Andres Soto.

For more information, contact:

Lisa Quintanilla

713-213-6323 or ezlisaq@hotmail.com